My dear parish family,

As we return to Ordinary Time after the beautiful celebration of Corpus Christi, the Church places before us the words of Jesus: “The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few” (Matthew 9:37).

I thank everyone who helped make our First Holy Communion celebration such a joyful and prayerful occasion. We congratulate all our 26 children and their families on this important step in their journey of faith. Special thanks to Sr Ursula and Nicci Brenninkmeijer for their dedicated catechetical preparation; Catherine Keyrouz for the beautiful flowers; Jonathan Al Hachache for the uplifting music; and Anne King and Team for organising the cake-cutting celebration after the Mass. Our thanks also go to Patricia Melvin and Celia Hannigan for the recent Spiritual Evening, where they helped us reflect more deeply on the theme of Synodality and our shared journey of faith as the People of God.

As many of you know, preparations are now well underway for our Summer Garden Party on Sunday, 28th June. To help us cater accurately and ensure that everyone is looked after, please remember to collect your free ticket after Mass. Tickets are simply for planning numbers and helping us organise the day effectively. There are also sign-up sheets available for those who would like to contribute food, assist with activities, or volunteer in any way. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Finally, a reminder that the Parish Synodal Team Meeting will take place on Sunday, 14th June at 3:00 pm. All members of the team are kindly requested to attend.

May God continue to bless you and your families.

Fr James Raj, St Ann's Catholic Church, Kingston Hill.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First reading

Exodus 19:2-6a

In those days: The people of Israel came into the wilderness of Sinai, and they encamped in the wilderness. There Israel encamped before the mountain, while Moses went up to God. The LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the people of Israel: "You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession among all peoples, for all the earth is mine; and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation."

The word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 100(99):1-2. 3. 5. R3c

Response: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Cry out with joy to the LORD, all the earth. Serve the LORD with gladness.

Come before him, singing for joy. Ṛ.

Know that he, the LORD, is God. He made us; we belong to him.

We are his people, the sheep of his flock. Ṛ.

Indeed, how good is the LORD, eternal his merciful love.

He is faithful from age to age. Ṛ.

Second reading

Romans 5:6-11

Brothers and Sisters: While we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person — though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die — but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation. The word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Mark 1:15: Alleluia, alleluia. The kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel. Alleluia.

GospelMatthew 9:36-10:8

At that time: When Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.' And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction. The names of the twelve Apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And proclaim as you go, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay.'

The Gospel of the Lord. All reply: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Creed: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
