Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

St Paul reminds us this Sunday, “I can do all things through him who strengthens me” (Philippians 4:13). What a beautiful invitation to live with faith and contentment! We are called to work wholeheartedly, make the most of our gifts and embrace life's responsibilities, while learning to surrender our worries to God. True peace is not found in having everything we desire, but in recognising God's presence in whatever life brings. Hands busy with life's work, and a heart resting in God.

Pets' Blessing - Grace-filled Celebration: A heartfelt thank you to everyone who brought their pets for our special blessing last Sunday. What a joyful gathering it was! We thank God for the beautiful weather and for everything going so well.

Church Improvements - A Generous Gift: I am also delighted to share that the deteriorating timberwork at the front of our church, which needed attention, is now being repaired. Once the work is completed, I shall share further details and offer our proper thanks in next week's newsletter for the sponsor and the carpenter.

We have two opportunities to deepen our faith and grow spiritually next week:

- Spiritual Evening - Tuesday 13 October, 7.30 pm. Led by Celia, exploring “Biblical Women: Their Lives and Lessons.”
- Bible Study - Friday 16 October, 7.30–8.30 pm. Led by Fr James, an evening of Scripture reflection and growing together in our understanding of God's Word.

With every blessing, Fr James Raj, Parish Priest (jamesraj@rcaos.org.uk)

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First reading

Isaiah 25:6-10a

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined. And he will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up death for ever; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, 'Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.' For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain. The word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 23(22):1-3a. 3b-4. 5. 6. R1

R: In the LORD'S own house shall I dwell for length of days unending.

The LORD is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me; he revives my soul. R

He guides me along the right path, for the sake of his name. Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death, no evil would I fear, for you are with me. Your crook and your staff will give me comfort. R

You have prepared a table before me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. R

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. In the LORD's own house shall I dwell for length of days unending. R

Second readingPhilippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Brothers and Sisters: I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me. Yet it was kind of you to share my trouble. And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen. The word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know the hope to which he has called us. Alleluia, alleluia

GospelMatthew 22:1-10

At that time: Jesus again spoke to the chief priests and the elders of the people, in parables, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son, and sent his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying, "Tell those who are invited, 'See, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast.'" But they paid no attention and went off, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. The king was angry, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find." And those servants went out into the roads and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests.

The Creed: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Journeying in Faith Through Scripture, Tradition, and Story

Our parish invites everyone to take part in a gentle journey of faith this year. Inspired by Mary who “sat at the Lord’s feet and listened to his teaching” (Luke 10:39), these gatherings offer time to reflect on Sacred Scripture, the living Tradition of the Church, and the stories that shape our faith. Through Bible study, film reflections, shared conversation, and prayer, we hope to move from simply learning about God to encountering Him more deeply in everyday life. Tea, coffee, and light refreshments will be available.

Third Fridays - Bible Study (7:30 pm – 8:30 pm) Led by Fr James – 16th Oct 2026

Second Tuesdays - Spiritual Evenings (7:30 pm) – 13th October – Biblical Women:
